Feedback to 28 July 2016 Surabaya Draft of New Urban Agenda

Draft New Urban Agenda Content (28 July Version/ Surabaya Draft) Current Paragraph	Proposed language	General Comments
5. By readdressing the way cities and human settlements are planned, financed, developed, governed, and managed, the New Urban Agenda will help to end poverty and hunger in all its forms and dimensions, reduce inequalities, promote sustained, inclusive, and sustainable economic growth, achieve gender equality and the empowerment of all women and girls, improve human health and well-being, as well as foster resilience and protect the environment.	Children PCG: "...and the empowerment of all women and girls and vulnerable groups, improve human health and well-being,	Children PCG: Proposed identification of vulnerable groups to strengthen NUA's point on inclusion in this section.
9. We anchor our vision in the concept of cities for all, referring to the equal use and enjoyment of cities, towns, and villages, seeking to promote inclusivity and ensure that all inhabitants, of present and future generations, without discrimination of any kind, are able to inhabit and produce just, safe, healthy, accessible, resilient, and sustainable cities and human settlements, as a common good that essentially contributes to prosperity and quality of life. Cities for all is also recognized as the Right to the City in some countries, based on a people-centered vision of cities as places that strive to guarantee a decent and full life for all inhabitants.	Children PCG: "...of present and future generations, regardless of migration status, without discrimination of any kind, are able to inhabit and produce just, safe, healthy..."	Children PCG: To strengthen NUA's point on inclusion in this section and consistency with language of other sections.
38. We commit to embrace diversity in cities and human settlements, to strengthen social cohesion, intercultural dialogue and understanding, tolerance, mutual respect, gender equality, innovation, entrepreneurship, inclusion, identity and safety, and the dignity of all people, as well as to foster livability and a vibrant urban economy. We also commit to ensure that our local institutions promote peaceful and pluralistic co-existence within increasingly heterogeneous and multi-cultural societies.	Children PCG: "social cohesion, intercultural and interfaith dialogue and understanding..."	Children PCG: The NUA does not identify diversity in terms of religion and faith, which forms the basis of building inclusive urban communities and social cohesion.
