Regional governments showcase their efforts to the New Urban Agenda during Habitat 3

On 16-20 October, 2016, Local and Regional Governments will gather in Quito, Ecuador, to discuss the main challenges and opportunities of an increasing urbanization during the Habitat Conference. During the occasion, Regional governments will also defend the need for further engagement and coordination of regional governments and other subnational authorities. "Without efficient multi-level governance mechanisms, it will be impossible to achieve an ambitious transformation on the ground" says Joan França, Project Manager of RegionsAdapt Initiative, a global initiative for regional governments to take action, cooperate and report efforts in climate adaptation, to be presented on a network event on the 19th of October (see below).

The position of regional governments will be present through multiple side and networking events. Particularly, nrg4SD will join the coordinated efforts and activities of global initiatives as the Global Task Force (GTF) and the Communitas Coalition. Among nrg4SD members participating on the Conference will be Azuay, Basque Country, Catalonia, Consorcio de Gobiernos Autónomos Provinciales del Ecuador - CONGOPE, Morona Santiago, Rabat-Salé-Kénitra and Rio de Janeiro.
